

Kamal Polite, A.P. DOM received his Bachelor of Science in Aviation Management and Flight Technology at Florida Institute of Technology in 1993. He has a Commercial Pilot License in Single & Multi-Engine Landing and Airplane with Instrument Ratings. Upon finishing his degree, he continued to further his education at Florida College of Integrated Medicine in Orlando, Florida. There he earned his 2nd Bachelor's Degree in Natural Science and a Masters Degree of Oriental Medicine in 1997. He became a Board Certified Acupuncture Physician upon graduation and remains one until present day.

Kamal served two internships while at the Florida College of Integrated Medicine at the Orlando Chinese Medical Center and at the Yantai Yu Huang Ding Hospital (Temple Hill Hospital) in China. He opened his practice Oriental Holistic Options, Inc. in 1997.

Upon his return from China, Kamal began developing his own line of Herbaceuticals. In 1998 he was a guest speaker for the MD Anderson Cancer Center of Orlando for the Nursing Grand Rounds and Physician Grand Rounds presenting on Cancer and Traditional Chinese Medicine. He has also been on several television programs including America's Health Care Network and Medical Matters. Kamal has also spoken on various radio programs dealing with a wide variety of topics related to Traditional Chinese Medicine including the Body Type System™.

He develops various trade marked products based on Chinese Medicine. Currently he travels globally with his 12 Body Type™ Diagnosis and Herbal Treatment Seminars for Physicians and Body Type System™ seminars for the Public including Understanding My True Nature with the Body type System™, Maximizing My Relationships with the Body Type System™, Harmonizing My Training with the Body Type System™, and Navigating Nutrition with the Body Type System™ Levels I, II, and III.

Kamal also works as a consultant to physicians and estheticians. He is trained in Tai Ji Quan, Yang Style, Chen Style, Xing Yi Quan, Ba Gua Zhang, and Qi Gong: 18 Methods, Six Healing Sounds, and Jin Shan Gong.